The loan is repayable in Equated Monthly Instalments every month and is detailed as under:

I). If the loan is disbursed in one lumpsum on the 1st, 2nd, or 3rd of a month, the EMI shall commence from the same month and the first EMI is payable during the same month.

II). If the loan is disbursed in one lumpsum after the 4th of the month, the date of commencement of EMI shall be the first day of the month following the month in which the disbursement of the loan is made. Additionally, PEMII (Pre-EMI Interest) is payable for the broken period from the date of disbursement till the end month.

III). If the loan is disbursed in instalments, interest is payable every month on the amounts cumulatively disbursed from the date of disbursement till the commencement of EMI. The date of commencement of EMI shall be the first day of the month following the month in which the final disbursement is made.

IV). Alternately, if the loan is disbursed in instalments, borrowers can opt to pay EMI for the disbursed amount(s). In such cases, the date of commencement of EMI shall be the first day of the month following the month in which the first disbursement of the loan is made. The EMIs shall vary based on the amounts cumulatively disbursed. Additionally, PEMII is payable for the broken period from the date of disbursement(s) till the end of the month.

V). The due date of payment is the last day of every month. Borrowers can opt to choose billing dates for payment of EMI / PEMII as 5th, 10th, or 15th of each month.

VI). EMI is payable through electronic modes such as E-NACH/NACH.

Subject to variation in terms of this agreement, subsequent EMIs shall be due and payable every month.
